CUTTACK, ODISHA

SUPPLEMENTARY SELF STUDY REPORT

DECEMBER 2016

There have been many significant developments and achievements added to our institution after the submission of the SSR and before the visit of the NAAC Peer Team, i.e. between August 17, 2015 and December 15, 2016. Hence, the same are being incorporated herein as Supplementary SSR. The additional information are as follows:

1. CURRICULAR ASPECTS

In the current session (2016-17) we have opened M.Phil. Course in 5 (five) subjects, namely History, Home Science, Political Science, Sanskrit and Odia. Furthermore, P.G. course in 7 (seven) new subjects, namely English, Education, Economics, Hindi, Psychology, Sociology and Philosophy have commenced this session in addition to increasing the intake capacity in the already existing 5 (five) old P.G. subjects. Additionally, B.Ed. course has been opened in self-financing mode. Extension of seats in some already existing old U.G. subjects has also been done.

For UG, PG, B.Ed. and M.Phil courses, the college follows the curriculum prescribed by Utkal University and Ramadevi Women's University to which is it affiliated. In the process of curriculum development, senior faculty members as members of Board of Studies of the University, help in qualitative improvements and re-designing of the syllabus from time to time. The college was earlier affiliated to Utkal University till 29th May'2015 and thereafter from 30th May'2015 it has been affiliated to Ramadevi Women's University. Hence, currently, First Year and Second Year UG students are under the Ramadevi Women's University whereas Final Year UG students are under the Utkal University. However, the CBCS system has been adopted from this session as per government guidelines, since we are a non-autonomous college.
